juniper & sherry duck pies

Adapted from Donna Hay

4 x 325g duck marylands
sea salt and cracked black pepper
1 onion, thinly sliced
4 garlic cloves, crushed
1 tbs tomato paste
1 tbs juniper berries
6 sprigs thyme
250ml Pedro Ximenez sherry
250ml chicken stock
2 x 375g sheets of Careme puff pastry, thawed
1 egg, lightly beaten
6 sage leaves

1. Preheat oven to 180°C.

2. Place a large non-stick frying pan over high heat. Sprinkle the duck with salt and pepper and cook, skin-side down, for 2-3 minutes. Turn and cook for a further 3 minutes or until browned. Place the duck in a deep-sided roasting pan and set aside.

3. Drain all but 1 tablespoon of fat from the frying pan. Reduce the heat to medium and add the onion and garlic. Cooking for 4 minutes.

4. Add the tomato paste, juniper, thyme, sherry and stock. Stir to combine and bring to a simmer. Pour into the pan with duck.

5. Cover tightly with aluminum foil and roast for 1 hour 30 minutes.

6. Remove the duck from the liquid and set aside. Remove and discard the thyme sprigs. Transfer the liquid to a medium saucepan over high heat. Bring to the boil and cook for 10 minutes or until reduced and syrupy. Remove and discard the skin from the duck. Shred the meat and return to the liquid. Stir to combine and set aside.

7. Increase oven temperature to 200°C. From each sheet of pastry, cut 1 x 15cm x 36cm rectangle. Line 2 large oven trays with non-stick baking paper.

8. Place 1 small pastry rectangle on each tray and top with the duck mixture, leaving a 2cm border. Brush the edges with egg and top with the remaining pastry. Press to seal, trim the edges and brush the pies with egg. Make 3 incisions in each pie and top with 3 sage leaves, pressing on and brushing with egg to secure. Bake for 40 minutes or until golden.

grape & cream cheese tart

Iron Chef Shellie

parmesan pastry:

6 tbsp butter, unsalted
1 tbsp vegetable oil
3 tbsp water
1/8 tsp salt
1 cup plain
1/4 cup parmesan cheese, shredded
1/4 tsp black pepper

goat / cream cheese filling:

1/2 clove garlic
1 tbsp fresh rosemary
240g goat cheese or cream cheese
1 tbsp olive oil
2 tsp fresh lemon juice
A few tablespoons of water
Salt and pepper to taste

roasted grapes:

a few bunches of seedless red grapes
1 tbsp olive oil
Salt and pepper

1. Preheat the oven to 210°C.

2. In a medium size oven-proof bowl or dish, add the butter, oil, water, and salt. Place the bowl into the oven for 15 minutes.

3. Wear oven mitts, possibly a long sleeve shirt, and hold the bowl away from your face, when removing from the oven, as the butter may splatter. Place the bowl onto the counter, with a pot holder or towel underneath.

4. In a separate bowl, mix the flour, shredded parmesan cheese, and black pepper.

5. Slowly stir the flour mixture into the hot butter. It is important to still be cautious of the hot butter, it may still pop when you add the first bit of flour. Also, remember that the bowl is very hot, so wearing oven mitts while stirring is ideal. Stir the mixture until combined. Let it sit and cool for 5 minutes.

6. Once the dough is cool enough to handle, place it in a 13x36cm tart tin. With your fingers, press the dough flat and up the sides of the molds. Prick the shell with a fork 10 or so times. Once you have finished forming the first tart shell, place it into the freezer while you are making the next one, and then repeat. Place the last tart shell into the freezer and let cool for 5 minutes.

7. Place the tart shells onto a baking sheet and place in the oven on the middle rack. Bake for 15 minutes. Remove from the oven to cool.

8. While the tart shells are cooling make the filling. In a food processor, add the garlic and the rosemary. Pulse several times to chop/mince. Then add the goat or cream cheese, olive oil and lemon juice. Blend until smooth and creamy, adding as much water as necessary to keep it moving and to make it creamy, but make sure not to add more than 1/4 cup.

9. Remove the tart shells from their pans and place on a serving platter or baking sheet, pour the goat/cream cheese filling equally amongst the completely cooled tart shells. Smooth the surface with a spatula, if necessary.

10. Place the tart shells in the fridge to firm up while you roast the grapes.

11. Preheat the oven to 200°C.

12. Arrange the bunches of grapes in a single layer on a baking tray lined with baking paper. Toss with the olive oil and sprinkle with a little salt and pepper. Roast for 15-20 minutes, until the grapes begin to burst and the juice around them starts to thicken.

13. Remove tarts from fridge, top with roasted grapes and extra rosemary sprigs to garnish. Serve.

rocket, beetroot, walnut and feta salad with balsamic dressing

Recipe Tin Eats

250g canned baby beetroot, halved or quartered

60g feta (preferably Danish, otherwise Greek),
3 tbsp walnuts, lightly crushed with your fingers

Dressing

2½ tbsp extra virgin olive oil

2. Place rocket lettuce in a serving bowl.

3. Scatter over beetroot. No need to toss - because of the weight, it should disperse throughout fairly well.

4. Crumble over the feta and scatter with walnuts.

5. Drizzle over dressing and serve.

Makes 4

sicilian eggplant rolls

Silvia Colloca

2 large eggplants, cut length ways into 5mm thick slices (you should end up with about 14 slices)
2 tbsp extra virgin olive oil
150g fresh mozzarella, torn into small pieces
3-4 tbsp freshly grated pecorino
3 tbs pine nuts (optional)
basil leaves, to serve

Sugo:

2 tbsp extra virgin olive oil
1 golden shallot, finely chopped
1 garlic clove, bashed with the back of a knife (or finely chopped, if you like a more pungent aroma)
400g can whole peeled tomatoes
sea salt flakes

Ricotta Filling:

1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil
1 garlic clove, skin on, bashed with the back of a knife
1 bunch silverbeet, stalks removed and finely chopped, leaves roughly chopped
500g fresh ricotta, well drained
30g freshly grated pecorino
1 egg
2-3 tbsp chopped flat-leaf parsley leaves
¼ tsp freshly grated nutmeg
2 tbsp sultanas, soaked in water for 30 minutes, drained

1. For the sugo, heat the olive oil in a large frypan over medium heat, add the shallot and garlic and cook for 1 minutes or until fragrant (watch it closely as the garlic can burn very quickly). Add the tomatoes and season with salt, then reduce the heat to low and simmer for 30 minutes or until slightly reduced. If it looks too dry you can add a little water.

2. Heat a large chargrill pan over high heat. Brush the eggplant sliced with olive oil, then grill for about 3-4 minutes on both sides until they are soft and have nice, dark char lines.

3. Preheat your oven to 200°C.

4. While the oven is heating, make the ricotta filling. Heat the olive oil in a frypan over high heat, add the garlic, then drop in the chopped silverbeet stalks. Cover and cook for 2 minutes or until softened. Add the silverbeet leaves, replace the lid and leave for 1-2 minutes until wilted. Drain off the excess liquid and discard the garlic clove. Mix the cooked silverbeet with the remaining ingredients in a bowl and season with salt and pepper.

5. To assemble, smear a ladleful of the sugo over the base of a baking dish. Put 1 tbsp of ricotta filling in the middle of each eggplant slice and roll up to enclose. Arrange the rolls, seam-side down, in a single later in the dish. Drizzle the remaining sugo over the top. Scatter the mozzarella and pecorino and bake for 25-30 minutes or until golden and bubbling. Remove and rest at room temperature for 5 minutes before serving. In the meantime, if you'd like to use pine butts to top the dish, heat a small non-stick frypan over medium heat and toast the pine nuts for 45-60 seconds until fragrant and lightly golden. Sprinkle over the eggplant.

6. To serve, grind over some black pepper and top with plenty of basil.

buffalo mozzarella lasagne

Neil Perry

9 instant or fresh lasagne sheets
500g fresh bocconcini
100g freshly grated parmesan

meat sauce:

1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil
1 onion, finely chopped
6 cloves garlic, finely chopped
300g pork mince
300g veal mince
sea salt and freshly ground pepper
2 tsp plain flour
2 tbsp balsamic vinegar
a pinch of caster sugar
700ml tomato passata
400g canned diced tomatoes
2 large handfuls basil leaves

béchamel sauce:

50g unsalted butter
4 tbsp plain flour
600ml milk
sea salt and freshly ground pepper

1. Preheat the oven to 190°C. Adjust the oven racks so the dish can sit in the middle.

2. To make the meat sauce, heat the oil in a large heavy-based frying pan over medium heat. Cook the onion, stirring occasionally, until softened but not browned. Add the garlic and cook until fragrant. Increase the heat to medium-high and add the meats and a pinch of salt and pepper. Cook, breaking up the meat with a wooden spoon, for 4 minutes or until it loses its raw colour but is not browned. Add the flour and cook, stirring, for 2 minutes. Add the vinegar and cook, stirring occasionally, until it has almost evaporated. Add the sugar, passata and tomatoes and simmer for 10 minutes or until the sauce thickens slightly. Check the seasoning, stir in the basil and set the meat sauce aside.

3. To make the béchamel, melt the butter in a heavy-based saucepan over low-medium heat. Add the flour and cook, stirring, for 1-2 minutes. Remove the pan from the heat and add the milk all at once, whisking constantly, to avoid any lumps. Return the pan to the heat and keep whisking, until the sauce boils and thickens. Remove from the heat and season.

4. To assemble the lasagne, spread a quarter of the meat sauce in the base of a 29cm x 23cm x 7cm lasagne dish. Place 3 of the lasagne sheets over the sauce. Spread another quarter of the sauce over the pasta, then a third of the mozzarella, torn into pieces. Continue layering the pasta, meat sauce and mozzarella two more times.

5. Pour the béchamel sauce evenly over the final layer of mozzarella, then sprinkle with the parmesan.

6. Cook the lasagne for 30 minutes or until the cheese is brown and the sauce is bubbling. Let the lasagne stand for 10 minutes before serving.

smørhøner

Iron Chef Shellie

bread dough:

120g unsalted butter, softened
75g caster sugar
¼ tsp salt
1½ tsp ground cardamom
375ml full cream milk
15g dry yeast
640g plain flour, plus extra for dusting
1 eggwhite, lightly beaten

icing:

120g icing sugar, sifted plus extra to decorate
1-2 tbsp water

vanilla custard filling:

30g caster sugar
1 egg yolk
1 tbsp corn flour
250ml full cream milk
½ tsp vanilla bean paste

cinnamon filling:

90g unsalted butter, softened
45g caster sugar
1tbs ground cinnamon
¼ tsp ground cardamom
¼ tsp vanilla powder or ½ tsp vanilla extract

1. In a large bowl, mix together butter, caster sugar, salt and ground cardamom until smooth. Heat milk in a small saucepan until around 37°C. Remove from heat, sprinkle over yeast and stir until dissolved.

2. Add milk to butter mixture and stir to combine. Add flour to butter mixture and knead the dough for 5-10 minutes, or until soft and elastic. Cover and allow to rest for 1 hour, or until doubled in size.

3. To make the vanilla custard filling, in a medium sized heatproof bowl, whisk together the sugar and egg yolk until pale and thickened, then whisk in the cornflour. In a saucepan over medium heat, combine the milk and vanilla bean paste, stir to combine. Remove from the heat just before it starts to boil. Pour the milk in a steady stream into the egg mixture, whilst whisking constantly to avoid curdling the eggs. When you have added all the milk, pour the mixture back into the saucepan and whisk over medium heat until the mixture has thickened and coats the back of a spoon. Cool completely then place in a large piping bag and keep in the fridge until needed.

4. To make the cinnamon filling, mix all ingredients together in a bowl and set aside.

5. To making icing, add icing sugar to a small bowl. Start with 1 tablespoon of water and add more if mixture is too dry, you want a consistency that flows smoothly off the spoon, in an unbroken stream. Transfer to a small piping bag and set aside.

6. When the dough is ready, on a lightly floured surface, roll dough into a 50x40cm rectangle. Spread the filling over the dough, right to the edges.

Fold the top third of the dough to the centre, and the bottom third over that towards the centre, like you are folding a letter. Pinch to seal the seam. Facing the long edge, trim off the edges and cut dough into 12 equal portions.

7. Cut each strip in half lengthwise, leaving the top part uncut so each piece looks like a pair of pants. Twist each 'leg' of the piece several times, slightly stretching it as you go. To shape the bun, you want the uncut part to remain in the middle. Take the left 'leg' and coil it clockwise over the top, and pinch to seal. Then take the other 'leg' and coil clockwise underneath, and pinch to seal the edge.

You should have a bun that looks tall instead of flat, with two levels. Arrange on two baking trays lined with non-stick baking paper, allowing room for when they expand.

8. Cover with clean tea towels and rest for a further 60 minutes.

9. Preheat oven to 220°C (200°C fan-forced).

10. Using your fingers, make a well in the middle of each bun. Brush each bun with egg white and cut the tip off the piping bag filled with custard and fill wells with vanilla custard. Bake for 8-10 minutes, or until golden brown. Allow to cool slightly.

11. Snip the tip of the other piping bag, and pipe the icing in a zig-zag pattern over each bun and finish with a light dusting of icing sugar.

12. Serve warm or at room temperature. Best eaten on the day they are made.
